I want to purchase something in an Office Depot store and receive our contract price, how do I do this?

Office Depot has developed a program to provide you with your contract pricing within any of nationwide stores. LVP card holders can register their LVP card for in-store discounts via the SPC Card

Office Depot link on the “employee discount page” on the Alcoa intranet. The Office Depot SPC Card (Store Purchasing Card), must be presented to the cashier at the time of purchase to receive this discount. Your location buyer will have access to an LVP card.

Does Office Depot provide employee discounts to Alcoa associates?

Yes! As a valued customer, Office Depot offers a 10% discount on purchases to all Alcoa employees for your personal office supply and technology needs. Simply register for a log in and password to receive your discount on www.officedepot.com. Once registered, you will receive your log in and password via a welcome email. You can also register for the employee discount via the Office Depot link on the “employee discount page” on the Alcoa intranet.
